Janette Mallory

Gorgeous not only describes Janette Mallory but everything in her uber-chic home furnishing boutique in Tarzana. Stepping into this interior designer's welcoming shop makes you realize you despise everything in your current home. From four-poster beds and custom-made European bedding to interesting tables, elegant accessories and fine upholstery, Janette Mallory carries a wide selection of household goods in a relatively small space, which she recently expanded. I was immediately at ease in the traditional yet eclectic store that evokes a dreamy Hamptons home.

In addition to running her shop, Mallory, who has a degree in Interior Design from UCLA, takes on upwards of 10 design projects a year. She prides herself on being able to tackle a house—from designing its interior to finding the perfect accents—and create a finished space. Mindful of clients' tastes and budgets, she stocks hundreds of fabrics to choose from in various price points in her store. And while the shop may look like it only offers the finishing touches and a small, but tasteful selection of furniture, as a designer, Mallory can certainly help you design everything in your home, including your kitchen and bath.

On a recent visit, the store was stocked with wonderful punches of black in the form of chinoiserie-style tables and accents placed against the crisp walls and sea grass floors. Beautiful examples of custom beds grace the space and showcase fabulous bedding, including European linens that can be custom made for your specifications, colors and design sensibility. The clean aesthetic is reinforced by a wide selection of glass hurricanes, decanters and apothecary jars, ranging in price from $45-$100. Other accessories include of-the-moment shells, accented with gold and silver; plush pillows; and quality candles. Adding a nod to the Orient, Mallory's store also showcases classic blue and white ginger jars, which would enhance any sideboard or mantle.

Whether you're seeking to completely redecorate your house or simply need a thoughtful housewarming gift, Janette Mallory offers everything for the home in a homey environment. Janette Mallory, 18639 1/2 Ventura Blvd., Tarzana; 342-6771; www.janettemallory.com.
